

The University of California, Berkeley
Emeriti Academy Presents:

Emeriti as Mentors: Intergenerational Poster Session

Short presentations by student mentees and faculty mentors of their undergraduate research projects

Register for
Monday 5/3 event,
2-3:30 pm

Register for
Wed. 5/5 event,
2-3:30 pm

Join members of the UC Berkeley Emeriti Academy, their student-mentees and other members of the retiree community to learn and discuss the results of recent intergenerational collaborations.

Both days will offer a series of short presentations, with group discussions, ending with a facilitated chat. The events will be recorded.

Monday, May 3, 2:00 - 3:30pm

History of Women in Chemistry, Biochemistry, and the Industry
Prof. Emerita Judith Klinman, Chemistry
Students: Lizy Choi, Flora Fan, and Pranathi Santosh

Women in City Planning
Prof. Emerita Elizabeth Deakin, City and Regional Planning
Student: Daisy Son

Female Asian Student Leaders at Berkeley in the Past Decades: Prytanean Women's Honor Society Alumnae
Dr. Sheila Humphreys, EECS
Student: Yueyi Che

Facilitated Chat: "Women in STEM"

Wednesday, May 5, 2-3:30 pm

2020 Voter Guide on Healthcare Policies
Ken Polse, Prof. Emeritus, Optometry & Phil Cowan, Prof. Emeritus, Psychology
Students: Emily Chou, Mesean Sadri-Naini

COVID and Vaccine Hesitancy
John Swartzberg, Prof. Emeritus, Public Health & Sam Davis, Prof. Emeritus, Architecture
Students from the "Covid-19, Vaccine Hesitancy, and the Public's Health"-course

Facilitated Chat: "Life during COVID-19"

-----
Grant support for this event from the Gerontological Society of America (GSA), Age-Friendly University Initiative

The Emeriti Academy is a community of scholars committed to continuing their contributions on campus and beyond. This event highlights one of the Emeriti Academy goals, to provide members with structure and support to work collaboratively on interdisciplinary projects that benefit the university and larger community.